

DGC June 2023 Newsletter

"She did not stand alone, but what stood behind her, the most potent moral force in her life, was the love of her father."

Harper Lee, "Go Set a Watchman"

Dear DGC Members,
Happy Father's Day to all!
Have a wonderful and safe summer!

PARADE - May 29 - Douglaston/Little Neck Memorial Day Parade Meet at 1:00 pm Meet 55 Northern Blvd PLEASE TEXT MAURA WRYNN AND JUST LET HER KNOW IF YOU WILL BE MARCHING!
The float is amazing and we have to thank Mary Taylor and Maura Wrynn for working on it this week. Catherine Touwsma for doing the labels that will be placed on the seed packets to be given out to people on the parade route.

Horticulture Show. "Down the Garden Path"

Special thank you to our Chairpersons, Cindy McCann and Carolyn Brink. They have been working so hard on this event, for months. Thank you to all the volunteers who helped out putting this wonderful day together. Even though the amount of entries was very low and we cannot qualify for an award, I wish to congratulate members that did enter and put in such an effort. Thank you so much.

Civic Beautification Patricia has Thursday, Workshops at CWNY, Fort Totten. Check out the website. She also will be working at PS 221 TBA. Thank you.

National Garden Week June 4-10

Bake Sale - We collected close to $800.00 in monetary donations because of the cancellation of the April Bake Sale, You can still make a donation. Next Bake Sale is October 28. Save the date. Thank you Jeri and Colleen for all your hard work. Thank you so much Douglas, throughout all these years for letting us use your office. It was appreciated by all. The CCD has volunteered us the use of the front lawn for October 28. Mark your calendar
