

DGC February Newsletter

Winter is an etching, spring a water color, summer an oil painting, and autumn a mosaic of them all.

~ Stanley Horowitz

Dear DGC Members,

Our December Pot Luck Luncheon was a happy and successful event. Thanks to all of you who participated in good spirits and with very delicious foods. Thank you to everyone who came early to set up and who stayed late to clean up. Everyone's participation made this such a successful day. And thank you Cindy McCann for providing us with a lovely selection of Holiday music.

Our next meeting will be Tuesday, February 15, at 1:00PM in the Parlor of the CCD. Our presenter will be Rita Rover. She is a nutritionist and will speak on "Plants and Your Health".

February Hospitality: Thank you in advance for your donation. Please bring your goodies to the CCD Parlor by 12:30.

Centerpiece: Doug Montgomery

Cookies: Arlene McGillick, Jane Stewart, Pam Timoyanis

Fruit: Jean Koerber, Sarah Milunec

Cheese and Crackers: Anne McHugh, Rosemarie Robertson, Amparo Minogue

The Ways and Means table will be open this month. Any items you have to donate are always appreciated.

A reminder to our membership - If you need to speak privately with another member during the general meeting or program, please step outside the parlor to do so and perhaps walk to the end of the hallway. The chattering in the parlor can be quite distracting and voices carry from the adjacent hall. Thank you.

Pam Timoyanis has planned our first trip of this year to:

Nassau County Museum of Art's Exhibition: The Beauty of the Air: Impressionism Around the Globe on Wednesday, March 30, 2022 from 11:30 to 12:30

This will be a docent guided tour of the exhibition focusing on the influence of the 19th century French impressionists on artists all across the globe.

Cost: $20 (make check payable to the Douglaston Garden Club)

Limited to 15 people. Transportation is on your own.

Contact: Pam Timoyanis, presa@nyc.rr.com or 718-578-1190 (text or voice)
